The Management Development Series for Legal Managers is a highly interactive development series dedicated to those responsible for supervising or managing others in the highly competitive world of legal firms. Whether managers have been "promoted from within" or moved into the legal industry to manage those who support demanding attorneys, it is the manager's responsibility to build a collaborative team to support the goals and initiatives of the firm.

This series provides managers with the non-negotiable skills required to be an effective managers. It is a five course series designed for participants to acquire the skills required to manage in the legal environment. As part of the series, participants return to the workplace eager to practice their newly acquired skills. They return each week to share their experiences and to reflect on their learnings.

Skilled facilitators with a background in working with legal firms provide expert feedback and coaching as the participants gain confidence and the skills required to be an effective manager in today's legal world. In addition, the group bonds as they support each other in the learning process.
